Frederick A. Beall was born about 1823 in Carnesville, Georgia, a son of Josiah D. Beall and his wife, Nancy "Ann" Tatum (Dent) Beall. Frederick came to Tarrant County with his parents and siblings in the 1850's and settled near Grapevine.

Frederick served the Confederacy by enlisting in 1861 in Tarrant County as a member of the 20th Brigade, Texas State Troops. He apparently had no real estate in Tarrant County but is in the tax list for Tarrant County.

In 1870 he and his wife, Martha, were at Industry in Austin County, Texas. They had no children with them. In 1880 they were in Precinct 6 of Williamson County, Texas. Martha told the census taker she was born about 1827 in Georgia. As in 1870, the couple had no children with them.
